

Launchpad Participant Concern Form

Thank you for taking the time to make us aware of issues you may be having with one of our programs. We want to ensure the safety and comfort of participants at all times. Please complete the form below as thoroughly as you can, and email it to hello@joinlaunchpad.com, using the subject line "Launchpad Participant Concern."

Please note: while this form cannot be submitted anonymously, it will not be shared with program participants who are not involved or implied in the form. Sharing information about an incident involving another participant indicates that you would like action to be taken by program administrators to establish continued safety and comfort in the program. This may include program administrators accessing chat transcripts and online forum archives. Only incidents involving online interactions that occurred on www.joinlaunchpad.com may be reported using this form.
